Approved MILSTRIP Change Letter (AMCL) 145, Revision to Alphabetic Codes
Contained in Document Number, column 40, Appendix B7

Appendix B7, paragraph e.(3). Change the explanation for the following alphabetic codes, which have been reserved for use in column 40, to read as follows:

CODES	DEFINITION
J	To identify ICP interrogations or offers of excess, and requisitions resulting from the interrogations or offers; used to denote interservice supply support transactions between ICPs (reference DoD 4160.21-M).
K	To identify requisitions submitted to DPDS, DPDO or GSA for excess property located at a DPDO that is requested as a result of reviewing manual screening lists, e.g., Excess Personal Property Lists (EPPL), GSA Regional Catalog listings.
L	To identify requisitions submitted to DPDOs which result from physical screening of property at the DPDO. This type of screening is referred to as "Local Area Screening" without any consideration of the distance traveled by the screener.
* M	To identify contractor initiated requisitions for Government Furnished Materiel to support commercially performed maintenance contracts.
N	To identify documents for components reclaimed by Military Activities/contractors through end item reclamation. Activity preparing shipping/turn-in document will place this code in cc 40 when forwarding components to stock.
P	To identify requisitions for excess contractor inventory that has been reported on DD 540 series of forms or referred by the Contractor Inventory Redistribution System (CIRS) either mechanically or by listing.
Q	To identify documents for items reclaimed from aircraft and equipments by the Military Aircraft Storage and Disposition Center (MASDC). MASDC will place this code in cc 40 when assigning the document number.
* R	To identify requisitions submitted to DPDS/DPDO from Inventory Control Points or Integrated Materiel Managers based on a Final Asset Screening notice of surplus personal property.
* S	To identify requisitions submitted to DPDS/DPDOs from Inventory Control Points or Integrated Materiel Managers based on a Front End Screening notice of excess personal property.
